Why is integrated care becoming so relevant?

A comprehensive approach to mental health

#EUHaveYourSay
#HealthUnion

The European Union has been confronted with unprecedented crises, which have significantly affected people's ability to cope with growing challenges in fast-changing contexts. With €1.23 billion in EU funding from different financial instruments and 20 flagship initiatives, the new comprehensive approach to mental health puts mental health on par with physical health, as part of a strong European Health Union.
